Telephone: Byrant 4140

Conditions of Sale

1. ALL BIDS TO BE PER LOT. They are executed free of charge by the Walpole Galleries and the items are bought at the lowest price permitted by competitive bids.

2. The highest bidder to be the buyer; in case of disputed bids the lot shall be resold, but the Auctioneer will use his judgment as to the good faith of all claims and his decision will be final. He may also reject any fractional or nominal bid calculated to delay or injuriously affect the sale.

3. Buyers to give their names and addresses and to make such cash payments on account as may be required, in default of which the lots purchased to be immediately resold.

4. GOODS BOUGHT TO BE REMOVED AT THE CLOSE OF THE SALE. If not so removed, they will be held at the risk of the purchaser and these Galleries will not be responsible if such goods are lost, stolen, damaged or destroyed. No deliveries will be made during the sale.

5. TERMS CASH. If accounts are not paid at the conclusion of the sale, or, in the case of absent buyers, when bills are rendered, these Galleries reserve the right to dispose of the goods without notice to the defaulting buyer and all costs of such re-sale will be charged to the defaulter. This condition is without prejudice to the rights of the Company to enforce the sale contract and collect the amount due without such re-sale at its own option.

6. This catalogue has been compiled by a competent cataloguer, the various lots offered are described with care and accuracy and they will be sold not subject to return.

7. The Walpole Galleries, if requested, will forward purchases at the buyer's risk and expense.

66. SPANISH MIGUELET LOCK DAGG. Length 14 inches. Brass mounted. Belt hook, sunken gold armorer's mark on barrel, which is also set with silver inlay at breech. Ornamental silver butt cap.
67. FINE PERSIAN DIRK. Length $19\frac{1}{2}$ inches. Keen-edged blade, silver covered scabbard and grip. Very old piece that is still in good condition. XVII. Century.
(See plate 5.)
68. GERMAN HUNTING SWORD. Length 21 inches. Keen double-edged blade. Horn grip, silver mounted.
(See plate 5.)
69. FINE GOLD INLAID PERSIAN DRESS SWORD. Length 22 inches. Very keen double-edged blade with two deep and broad grooves. The base is enriched for three inches with bas-relief floral ornaments, while the grip is damascened in gold. Plush-covered scabbard. Exceptionally choice piece.
(See plate 1.)
70. INDIAN CURVED DAGGER. Length $13\frac{1}{2}$ inches. Wooden sheath. Horn guard and grip.
71. INDIAN CURVED DAGGER. Another, similar.
(See plate 1.)
72. CHINESE OPIUM PIPE. Length 22 inches. Snakeskin covered, ivory caps. Engraved German silver bowl and carved ivory crocodile.
(See plate 1.)
73. FINE MALAY CHIEF'S CURVED KNIFE. Length $19\frac{1}{2}$ inches. Fine quality keen-edged blade, pierced and engraved near hilt, carved horn grip (superficially cracked), carved horn scabbard carved at base and point. The bands on the scabbard are missing.
(See plate 2.)
74. INDIAN SWORD. Length 26 inches. Serrated edges. Blade covered with chased designs. Embossed brass grip. One branch broken. Rare and curious piece.
(See plate 1.)
75. SERPENTINE KRIS. Length $17\frac{1}{2}$ inches. Carved grip. Native wood scabbard.
(See plate 2.)

76. RARE TYPE PERSIAN SHORT SWORD. Length 23 inches. Double-edged blade. Fluted wooden grip. Engraved brass hilt and pommel. Wooden scabbard of yellow, with brown mottling. Engraved brass mounts. Fine and unusual piece.
(See plate 3.)
77. SOUDANESE DAGGER. Length $24\frac{1}{2}$ inches. Carved horn grip, leather covered scabbard, brass mounted, the base one engraved.
(See plate 5.)
78. LOT: 5 CANES. (a) Slender horn. (b) Natural twisted wood. Buckhorn grip. (c) Carved, showing snake, etc. (d) Thorn. Fancy German silver grip. (e) Orange wood. Carved alligator.
79. XVII. CENTURY CROSSBOW. Length 29 inches. Very handsome mottled walnut stock, raised cheek piece, double set triggers, brass trigger guard, peep sight. Steel bow. The iron loop on the muzzle engages the lever, which accompanies the crossbow. Rarely found complete.
80. HARPERS FERRY TAPE-LOCK MUSKET (1859). The scarce Navy model, fitted with sword bayonet, which is missing.
81. RARE POACHER'S KENTUCKY FLINT-LOCK RIFLE. Length 51 inches. Full length very beautiful curly maple stock. 7 engraved silver escutcheons (one missing). Brass mounted. Very elaborate and large patch-box, prettily engraved. Raised cheek piece with engraved silver ornament. Checked grip. The unusual feature is that the barrel is a "take down" and the forestock is divided in front of the trigger guard so that the piece can be quickly taken apart and concealed on the person. The stock has been split around the lock and crudely repaired by brass plates. It is such a rare piece, however, that it would more than pay to restore it, although it is not really necessary.
82. ABYSSINIAN KNIFE. Length 17 inches. Double edged blade set with silver ornamentation for $2\frac{1}{2}$ inches on each side of the base. Horn grip, leather scabbard.
(See plate 2.)
83. CANE GUN. Length 34 inches. Horn covered. Inoperative.

84. ANTIQUE CLASP KNIFE. Length $14\frac{1}{2}$ inches, with blade open. German silver mounted. Pearl name plate. Fairly good condition.
85. RARE XVII. CENTURY JAPANESE MATCH-LOCK GUN. Length 44 inches. Heavy octagon barrel, with unusually large flaring muzzle. Barrel bears Kiri crest indicating it belonged to the nobility. Besides this crest there are numerous dragons and other ornamental designs in silver and gold bronze on the barrel, also silver inlay on the match holder. A very desirable and genuine old piece showing nine proof marks.
86. SHARP'S PERCUSSION BREECH-LOADING BUFFALO RIFLE. 25-inch heavy octagon barrel, calibre .38. Double set triggers, iron patch-box. One of the early models of this celebrated rifle.
87. EARLY FLINT-LOCK BRASS BARRELLED BLUNDER-BUS. Length 30 inches. Cannon barrel, with $1\frac{1}{2}$ -inch bell muzzle. Very old piece, probably made before 1700. Wood split in two places on the forestock and part of back strap on hammer broken, but, considering its age, it is in good order and complete.
88. MOORISH MIGUELET LOCK HORSEMAN'S GUN. Length 68 inches. The barrel is held to the stock by nine embossed brass capucines. Crutch-shaped stock. Fitted with a genuine miguelet lock not often found, and a very old piece, yet well preserved.
89. BRIDESBURG U. S. MUSKET, with Milbank's alteration to breech-loader. A rare piece. Bayonet missing.
90. VOLCANIC MAGAZINE RIFLE. 25-inch barrel. Patent of 1854, and forerunner of the Winchester rifle. Very scarce.
91. RAJPOOT KATAR. Length 16 inches.
92. RAJPOOT KATAR. Another, similar. Length $13\frac{1}{2}$ inches.
(See plate 3.)
93. INDIAN BEHEADING SWORD. Length $21\frac{1}{2}$ inches. The blade is engraved each side at the end in floral design, and the back has half-inch engraved border each side. The left side at the base shows $3\frac{1}{2}$ -inch figure of a king, while the right side has a relief silver figure of a warrior. The grip is covered with raised carving. On the blade are 17 copper inserts. An extra nice piece.
(See plate 1.)

94. REMINGTON NAVY PISTOL. Calibre .50, center fire. Special hand-made curly walnut fore-end and similar large grip. Nicely reblnd and perfect barrel.
95. UNUSUAL JAPANESE LONG MATCH-LOCK PISTOL. Length 35 inches. Octagon barrel with flaring muzzle, and bears silver crest.
96. UNIQUE PEPPERBOX. 4 shots, calibre .32. Made by C. S. Shattuck. But few were made about twenty years ago, and they are now rarely found. New condition.
(See Plate 6)
97. PERSIAN SCIMETAR. Length 32 inches. Leather scabbard, brass bound. A genuine and very old piece.
(See plate 2.)
98. PERSIAN SCIMETAR. Another. Length 38 inches. Gold damascene on each side of base for three inches. The grip, quillons and the two swivel bands are similarly ornamented. Leather scabbard.
(See plate 4.)
99. FINE ITALIAN FLINT-LOCK HUNTING SIDE ARM. Length 19½ inches. Tapering barrel profusely ornamented with silver inlay of various designs. The tang is similarly decorated. Chiselled fancy iron mounts. Very fine, hand-made lock covered with engraving, showing deer, hunter and dog and foliation. The hammer is also engraved. Fancy pierced iron side plate. Fancy design silver name plate. Heavy butt with metal cap. The stock is of most beautiful mottled walnut with carved relief rosettes and borders around the mountings. An exceptionally choice piece, in perfect condition and made before 1700. Ramrod missing.
(See plate 6.)
100. ANCIENT SARDINIAN GUN. Length 60 inches. Miguelet lock. Stock is of ebony and bound with iron in filigree and chiselled design. Rare type of arm. The hammer spring was disengaged in transit, but is with gun and can easily be replaced.

101. PAIR SPECIAL COLT PERCUSSION REVOLVERS. Calibre .36. 5½-inch round barrels, fluted cylinders, silver plated, and profusely engraved all over in scroll design. Hammers, triggers, back straps and cylinders gold plated. Preserved in fine, highly polished rosewood case, with brass name plate, plush-lined, with Colt double bullet mould, fine copper powder flask, bullets, combination nipple wrench and screw driver, and two boxes of caps. The outfit is in almost new condition and is without question the finest that has passed through our hands.
(See plate 7.)
102. ARABIAN FLINT-LOCK HORSEMAN'S GUN. Length 62 inches. Crutch-shaped stock that is ornamented with some carving. Slender octagon barrel held to the stock by numerous strands of fine wire. Nice old piece. Stock repaired but hardly shows.
103. LOT. (a) Marlin 25-20-barrel, good condition. (b) Malay Kris and German silver scabbard. Handle missing. (c) Civil War shell. (d) Old-time clasp knife.
104. INDIAN CURVED DAGGER. Length 11 inches. Wooden grip.
(See plate 4.)
105. SHORT MALAY SWORD. Length 26½ inches. Wooden grip, checked in four panels.
(See plate 1.)
106. MALAY KRIS. Length 21 inches. Carved wooden grip. Native wood scabbard.
107. FINE MALAY CHIEF'S KRIS. Length 21 inches. Serpentine blade, ornamented at base in pierced and chiselled designs. Hard wood carved grip wound with material to secure firmer hold.
(See plate 1.)
108. SPANISH BOLO. Length 19½ inches.
109. MAYNARD TAPE-LOCK POCKET REVOLVER. Ivory grips. Fairly good condition.

110. PAIR PERSIAN FLINT-LOCK PISTOLS. Length $16\frac{1}{2}$ inches. Calibre about .55. Round, light barrels, profusely inlaid with silver. Fancy brass mounts. Engraved fancy design pierced side plates and brass name plates, and heavy brass butt caps. The trigger guards, butts, hammers and locks have half-moons and stars stamped on them. The locks are marked "Ketland & Co.," showing they were made to order by this celebrated firm for some Persian dignitary. Original leather double holster, with shoulder strap.

(See plate 7.)

111. JAPANESE DAGGER. Length $10\frac{1}{2}$ inches. Beautifully carved ivory grip and scabbard. Finial ornaments missing.

112. PERSIAN CURVED DAGGER. Length 17 inches. Blade covered with Persian characters $4\frac{1}{2}$ inches each side of base. Bone grip, sharkskin scabbard. FINE PIECE.

(See plate 5.)

113. VERY CHOICE CHINESE LADIES' DAGGER. Length 10 inches. Curved blade, silver grip, engraved silver mounts and solid gold floral ornament on each side of grip. The scabbard is similar and there are four solid gold ornaments each side and a large engraved silver band with two eyelets for carrying. An exceptionally beautiful little piece, in perfect condition.

(See plate 1.)

114. PERSIAN DAGGER. Length 13 inches. Fine quality double-edged blade. Wooden grip. Leather and sharkskin scabbard.

(See plate 2.)

115. ORNATE PERSIAN SHORT SWORD. Length 27 inches. Double-edged blade. The right side is set with seven silver encrustations showing six birds and a man's bust. The left side shows three birds and three men's busts. These ornaments have an engraved background. Copper covered grip showing three men's busts each side with chased background. Plush covered scabbard with two copper sleeves decorated the same as the grip. A very showy and unusual piece, in fine condition.

(See plate 5.)

116. RARE AND GENUINE BOWIE KNIFE. 9-inch blade, marked "Americans Ask for Nothing But What Is Right and Submit to Nothing What Is Wrong." "The United States, the land of the free and the home of the brave, protected by her noble and brave Volunteers S. & D.," also large spread-eagle. American Bowie Knife. "Toothpick" ivory grips held in place by 14 round-headed German silver rivets, German silver mounted, also leather scabbard, also German silver mounted. This piece dates back to about 1842 and received its name from a knife made from a file by Resin P. Bowie and used by his brother, Colonel James Bowie, in a duel near Natchez, Miss. These knives are rarely found and this is the first one that has passed through our hands.

(See plate 3.)

117. DUTCH SABRE. Length 31 inches. Period about 1840. Base of each side of blade shows engraving of various designs and "Amsterdam."

118. REVOLUTIONARY WAR SOLDIER'S KNIFE. Length 32 inches when open. Horn side plates. Many of the young soldiers who returned from the war made nuisances of themselves by reckless shooting, so the guns were taken away from them and householders for protection were supplied with these big clasp knives by Committees of Safety. Exceptionally rare and interesting war relic.

166. EXPERIMENTAL SALOON PISTOL. Length 11 inches. The action of pulling back the two branches compresses a spring and a thumb screw on the right side turns down the nipple for capping, at the same time exposing an aperture at the top of the barrel for the insertion of the pellet which it uses, which is about calibre .15. Spur trigger guard. Well made piece of unique design.
(See plate 6.)
167. UNIQUE THREE-SHOT PIN FIRE PISTOL. All metal. Three cannon barrels three inches long, about calibre .30, point in different directions, and are exploded by a hammer with three branches. The breech block is hinged and lifts up for the insertion of the cartridges. Rare piece, in perfect condition.
(See plate 6.)
168. RARE AUSTRIAN PILL-LOCK DRAGOON PISTOL. Length 17 inches. Brass mounted. Butt cap missing, otherwise in perfect condition.
169. TURKISH MIGUELET LOCK HORSEMAN'S ARQUEBUS. Length 19½ inches. 1½-inch bell muzzle. The barrel is set with silver inlay, and the stock and fore-end are covered with carved designs. The stock is also ornamented with silver wire inlay. Perfect condition.
(See plate 7.)
170. QUEER PERCUSSION DRAGOON PISTOL. Length 16 inches. Brass mounted. Flat brass butt with ring in it. A crude alteration from flint-lock.
171. SHORT ENGLISH DRAGOON OFFICER'S PISTOL. Length 14½ inches. Brass mounted. Shield-shaped brass name plate. Heavy dragoon pistol, period about 1730. Forestock slightly chipped. Ramrod missing.
172. FINE FRENCH PERCUSSION HORSEMAN'S PISTOL. Length 19½ inches. Slender barrel about 20 bore, profusely ornamented with silver wire inlay in various designs. Very fine highly polished walnut stock, silver thimble and ebony ramrod, which is partly broken. The forestock is carved in relief in very pretty floral and other designs. Wooden trigger guard with silver brace. The woodwork around the tang is also nicely carved in relief, and the two side plates are of silver in fancy design. There is also a fancy silver comb plate and silver butt. This has been altered from flint-lock and it now has a dolphin hammer and a fluted lug. The piece shows the highest quality of workmanship, and is of graceful design.
(See plate 7.)

173. FINE FRENCH SILVER MOUNTED FLINT-LOCK HOLSTER PISTOL. Length $19\frac{1}{2}$ inches. The barrel is of high quality steel, flattened at the breech for one inch with two relief floral ornaments. The top of the barrel has a raised rib with double fluting. The muzzle cap is of silver, engraved, and also carved in relief. The two thimbles are of fancy design and are silver. The rear one is carved to represent a grotesque man's head. The trigger guard is of silver, hand chiseled, with engraved acorn. The stock is of very fine highly polished mottled walnut. there is exquisite floral carving ahead of the trigger guard, each side of which is checked in panel. The carving around the comb is also exquisite, and the carving extends well down the stock. The side plate is silver, also engraved. There is a very pretty silver name plate engraved in fancy design surmounted by a crown. The butt cap is of solid silver, very heavy, and the finial shows a lion's head in relief. A very beautiful pistol, in perfect condition except that a small piece of wood is chipped out side of the stock near the butt cap. One of the finest pistols that has passed through our hands.

(See plate 6.)

174. FINE FANCY BELGIAN PERCUSSION SINGLE-BARREL SHOTGUN. Length 44 inches, about calibre .20. Very fine damascus barrel, octagon at the breech, and damascened in gold for three inches. Back action lock, hammer, trigger guard, butt plate and rear nipple are of German silver, nicely engraved. The stock is of light wood showing very remarkable man's head finial, and below this a dog's head. There is also a raised cheek piece with carved ornaments and a small German silver patch-box with cover. A very showy little piece, in good condition.

175. SOUDANESE KNIFE, or "DHA" from Assam. 13-inch high quality very keen edged blade. Metal and wooden grip. Native wood scabbard, rattan bound. Unusual blade in that the end of it is square.

(See plate 5.)

176. PRUSSIAN FLINT-LOCK DRAGOON PISTOL. Length 17 ins. Fine polished stock, brass mounted. High grade pistol, in unusually fine condition. Period about 1800.

(See plate 6.)

177. UNUSUAL TURKISH SHORT FLINT-LOCK PISTOL. Length 12 inches. Brass mounted. It is not often that an oriental pistol of this size is found. Main spring and trigger guard missing.

178. ALGERIAN MIGUELET LOCK HORSEMAN'S GUN. Length 49 inches. Very high quality laminated steel barrel ornamented at the breech and other parts of the barrels with silver inlay, and the stock is held to the barrel by two embossed capucines. Bell muzzle. The stock is covered with mother-of-pearl inlay of various designs, and the butt has an engraved brass band. A few of the pieces of mother-of-pearl are missing, but this is a genuine and very old piece. The stock is split on the right side in places and the ramrod is missing, but it is sufficiently well preserved to be a valuable addition to any collection.
179. ARABIAN FLINT-LOCK HORSEMAN'S GUN. Length 51 inches. Slender barrel, octagonal at the breech. The lower part of the stock from the butt and for 18 inches ahead of the trigger guard is ornamented with brass partly engraved and partly pierced. This ornamentation on the top and the lower butt is engraved in pierced design, and there is a heavy engraved brass cap on the butt. The lock is out of order but the piece is in good condition considering its age.
180. ORNATE ALGERIAN MIGUELET LOCK HORSEMAN'S GUN. Length 50 inches. Octagonal barrel inlaid in various designs with silver at the breech and at the muzzle. Heavily rifled. Slightly belled muzzle. The forestock is metal and is held to the barrel by five engraved brass capucines. The stock is covered with mother-of-pearl inlay of various designs, and between the inlay are brass bands, one of which is imperfect. There is also an embossed brass sleeve at the butt. A genuine and unusual old piece.
181. ALGERIAN MIGUELET LOCK ALL METAL HORSEMAN'S GUN. Length 60 inches. Slender barrel, slightly belled at the muzzle and octagon for eighteen inches at the breech. The forestock is covered with brass in engraved and pierced design and held to the stock by nine engraved brass capucines. The stock is of unusual design and is covered with brass ornamented in pierced and fancy design. The trigger guard is also of brass, engraved and pierced. A very old and genuine piece, in very good condition.
182. ORIENTAL IRON LOADER for use with horseman's flint-lock pistol. Made of iron, octagonal and ornamented. The grip is of brass in arabesque design with swivel ornamentation. These were used with flint-lock pistols that were not fitted with ramrods, and are rarely found.

(See plate 7.)

183. ORIENTAL IRON LOADER. Another. Length 15 inches. Not so ornamental.
(See plate 7.)
184. ORIENTAL IRON LOADER. Length 15 inches. Rather plain.
(See plate 7.)
185. RARE ALGERIAN MIGUELET LOCK HORSEMAN'S CARBINE. Length 33 inches. Metal forestock. The barrel is round with a narrow raised rib and cannon muzzle held to the stock by two engraved and one brass capucine. The frame around the lock is nicely engraved in floral and other designs. Walnut stock, brass bound. There are two swivels for the sling in carrying. Brass butt and trigger. A rare little piece of great age, in perfect condition.
(See plate 5.)
186. MALAY THROWING SPEAR. Length 54 inches. 8-inch round steel tapering point.
187. UNUSUAL MALAY THROWING SPEAR. Length 53 inches. The steel point is nine inches and is unusual as it has a broad crescent-shaped point. Fine condition.
188. FINE DOUBLE POINTED ASSEGAI SPEAR. The spear head on one end is $19\frac{1}{2}$ inches long, 4 inches at the base, while the other one is 26 inches long, and square for 21 inches. The total length of the spear is 74 inches. Spears of this type are rarely found.
189. ALGERIAN MIGUELET LOCK HORSEMAN'S GUN. Length 58 inches. Slender octagon barrel held to the stock by five engraved brass capucines. The forestock is of metal nicely engraved. The breech is also engraved in various designs. Polished stock with some pearl ornamentation, one or two pieces of which are missing. A very old piece, in good condition, except that the ramrod is missing and there is slight wear around the lock.
190. RARE ALGERIAN MIGUELET LOCK HORSEMAN'S GUN. Length 54 inches. Slender steel barrel, octagon at the breech for 18 inches, held to the stock by three engraved brass capucins. The forestock is of iron. This is a very early gun as the lock is of the crudest design. The stock is set with numerous pieces of pearl in pierced design. The ramrod is missing, otherwise the piece is in extra good condition and probably dates back three hundred years, and has extreme interest on account of its antiquity.

191. JAPANESE FAN DAGGER. Double edged. Blood groove. Length $11\frac{1}{2}$ inches. The scabbard and grip are made to represent a fan.
192. JAPANESE FAN DAGGER. Length 12 inches. Very sharp blade. The scabbard and grip represent a fan.
193. UNUSUAL CHINESE DAGGER. Length 13 inches. Wooden grip, metal mounted. The scabbard is of wood mounted with white metal, the fore-end cap being of pierced design. On the sides of the knife is a pair of ivory chop sticks and a slender knife with a grip that ends in tweezers. A very unusual outfit, in perfect condition.
(See plate 4.)
194. ORNATE PERSIAN CHIEFTAIN'S YATAGAN. Length 28 ins. Fine quality keen edged blade, the back of which is ribbed, and the blade is ornamented in gold damascened design. Ivory grip also ornamented in gold damascene. The scabbard is very elaborate and appears to be of low grade silver decorated in arabesque design. Very showy piece, in good condition.
(See plate 3.)
195. FINE SOUDANESE CHIEF'S DOUBLE-EDGED DAGGER. Length 23 inches. Very fine high quality keen edged blade ornamented with two double lines on each side. Metal grip. Laced leather bound. Ornamental leather scabbard. Nice piece.
(See plate 5.)
196. ANTIQUE WOODEN TURKISH TAVERN SIGN. Pear-shaped, 15 inches across, and 17 inches from top to bottom. Carved in relief. A pleasant reminder of the good old days.
197. EARLY INDIAN CURVED HUNTING KNIFE. Length 19 ins. Carved quillons, one of which is broken. Buckhorn grip with shell-shaped silver cap. Leather scabbard mounted in silver with embossed design. Two small knives which fit in the outside of the scabbard are missing. UNUSUAL SPECIMEN.
(See plate 3.)
198. VERY EARLY TURKISH TOUCH BOX, made of brass and covered with engraved characters showing animals of various sorts in foliated background. $6\frac{1}{2}$ inches long. Fine condition.
(See plate 6.)

PLATE 5

199. BELGIAN FLINT-LOCK DRAGOON PISTOL. Length 17 inches. Brass mounted. Period 1800. The wood above the lock plate is slightly chipped, and hammer cap and pin not original.
200. UNUSUAL ITALIAN CLASP KNIFE. Length $9\frac{1}{2}$ inches with blade open. The blade is marked "Vendetta" and other marks. The ornamentation is burnt on. Fine condition.
(See plate 4.)
201. HAWKEN PERCUSSION SPORTING RIFLE. 40-inch octagon barrel, calibre about .40. Plain walnut stock, brass mounted. The barrel is marked "S. Hawken." There is a slight split on the comb, otherwise the rifle is in very good condition. This is probably one of the most famous rifles that has ever passed through our hands. Samuel T. Hawken, familiarly known as "Old Man Hawken," was born of Pennsylvania-Dutch stock in Hagerstown, Md., in 1792, and was a soldier in the War of 1812, and after his return began to practice trade as a gunsmith. In 1822 he moved to St. Louis, Mo., where he started making these celebrated rifles which had a great deal to do with the early settlement of the west. He made rifles for all the early fur traders, among them General William Ashley, who once killed a buffalo with a Hawken rifle at 300 rods. Every rifle was made by hand and sold at the one price—$25. He continued the business until 1859, when he sold out. Although this is a plain rifle, they are now exceedingly rare—particularly in the east—and this is the only one that has ever passed through our hands.
202. INDIAN RHINOCERUS SHIELD, $9\frac{1}{2}$ inches in diameter, $6\frac{1}{2}$ inches high. Bee-hive shaped and made of rhinoceros hide and ornamented with two pieces of brass. Perfect condition.
203. SMALL ITALIAN CROSS-BOW. Length 27 inches. Iron stock with wooden butt, which is club-shaped and is much worm-eaten. Bow-string not original, otherwise in perfect condition. The frame has a proof mark, and there has been no restoration. RARE PIECE.
(See plate 7.)
204. NORTH INDIAN MACÉ. Length 40 inches. Representing a cow's head. Beautifully embossed and deeply engraved, and completely covered with floriated decoration, also six figures of sitting men and women. Around the center there is an Arabic inscription probably representing verses from the Koran. This inscription and other decoration is enriched with silver. Fine and rare piece.
(See plate 8.)

205. RARE INDIAN MAKTAH, or BOW. Length 50 inches. Perfect condition, with original bow-string.
206. RARE HORSEMAN'S XV. CENTURY WAR HAMMER or "CROW-BILL." The head, or "crow-bill," is 19 inches long. 39-inch heavy iron handle, wire bound. Extremely rare piece apparently in perfect, original condition.
(See plate 7.)
207. MAHRATTA GARZE or MACE. Length 24 inches. Made entirely of wood.
208. MALAY BOW. Length 69 inches, with original bamboo bow-string. There are also 11 wooden arrows that go with it, they being 50 inches long.
209. THORN WOOD CANE, with heavy brass hatchet-shaped handle, which can be used as a weapon. Good condition.
210. FINE PERSIAN SCIMITAR, with 36-inch blade. Each side of the blade for 9 inches at the base is richly damascened in gold, the whole surface of this base being covered. The grip and the guard as well as the mountings are of low grade silver. A small part of one of the ornaments has been broken off in transit but the piece is there and can be restored. The scabbard is of wood with two long embossed white metal mounts. Fine piece.
(See plate 2.)
211. PERSIAN DRESS SCIMITAR, with serrated edges. Length 32 inches. Unusual piece, in good condition.
(See plate 3.)
212. EAST INDIAN POWDER HORN. Length 27 inches. Made of black horn.
(See plate 1.)
213. RARE ABYSSINIAN CUTTING AXE. Length 42 inches. Heavy double-edged blade covered with rude engraved characters, straight quillons, iron grip, leather wrapped. Intended probably to cut the bridles of horses or cut anything opposed to them. Extremely scarce weapon, in good original condition.

214. TWO UNUSUALLY FINE ALBANIAN ALL-METAL FLINT-LOCK DUELLING PISTOLS. Length 20 inches. The barrels are held to the forestocks by embossed leather capucines, and the rest of the stocks are brass and ornamented in arabesque designs. The grips are brass and chisselled to represent wiring. The butts are very heavy and are carved in arabesque design. These two pistols are not quite mates, but are of the same period and make. One lock slightly inoperative.
(See plate 7.)
215. PERSIAN SCIMITAR. Length 37 inches. Heavy blood groove each side of blade. Iron quillons. Pistol-shaped grip. Iron scabbard. Very good condition.
(See plate 3.)
216. EAST INDIAN SPEAR. The point is 20 inches long, square at the end. The other part is ornamented with file work and some leather inlay. The shaft is polished, and there are four silver wire windings. Part of the shaft is missing.
217. TWO EAST INDIAN BITS. Very early designs. (2)
218. PERSIAN POCKET TINDER-BOX. Length 3½ inches. Leather, nicely ornamented with three pieces of pierced design brass. Contains tinder and a flint. Also a small brass box. 2 pieces.
219. LOT: Consisting of wooden Esquimaux knife, Turkish pocket knife, Austrian pocket knife with very elaborate carved wooden handle fashioned to represent a monkey with a cap. Also a small leather case containing a pair of tweezers and two lancers. The latter probably used by an early doctor.
220. LOT: Consisting of Japanese lady's shoe with very fine embroidered top; Chinese lady's slipper; Chinese lacquered cigarette case, and small Chinese box of highly polished light wood with tortoise-shell end, and appears to be a card case.
221. EAST INDIAN HAMMER-SHAPED BATTLE-AXE HEAD. Length 8 inches. Inlaid with silver. Handle missing.
(See plate 1.)
222. VERY FINE TURKISH PIPE. Length 14 inches. The base is white glass overlaid with red, with enameled ornamentation. German silver top surmounted by a clay bowl with long stem.

223. TURKISH PIPE. Another. Height $10\frac{1}{2}$ inches. Red glass. No ornamentation. German silver top and meerschaum bowl and stem.
224. JAPANESE LACQUERED SAMURAI ARMOUR. Period 1600. Complete and well articulated and intended for heavy fighting. This is a genuine and authentic suit of armour, apparently un-restored and in original condition, and as such is a rarity, as these suits rarely are offered at auction, especially in this country.
225. TURKISH SPEAR, with 7-inch triangular point and 7 ft. haft. 21 inches of the haft is painted red and is ornamented with fluting. Good condition.
226. VERY FINE EAST INDIAN SHIELD, $21\frac{1}{2}$ inches in diameter, made of rhinoceros hide of a very beautiful brownish yellow mottled texture almost like tortoise-shell. The edge and the center are ornamented with applied floral designs, and there are four pierced design brass bosses. A very fine shield and rarely found any better or larger.
227. BEAUTIFULLY EMBOSSED DEEPLY ENGRAVED NORTH INDIAN SHIELD, completely covered with floriated decoration, and around the edges there is an Arabic inscription representing verses from the Koran. This inscription is enriched with silver, and the center is beautifully decorated with heavy gold inlay as well as floriated background, both of the finest quality. There are four bosses, gold damascened. 20 inches in diameter.
(See plate 8.)
228. NORTH INDIAN CASQUE, similarly decorated, with a nasal guard and two plume holders and a coil of chain mail. Wonderfully fine piece, and in original, complete condition.
(See plate 8.)
229. NORTH INDIAN ARM GUARD, similarly decorated as the foregoing, except that there is no Arabic inscription. Fine condition.
(See plate 8.)
230. GERMAN TWO-HANDED SWORD or "ZWEIHANDER." Period about XV. Century. Length $64\frac{1}{2}$ inches. Heavy double edged, $1\frac{3}{4}$ -inch blade, with raised central rib on each side. $16\frac{1}{2}$ -inch handle, leather covered. Round pommel, turned down quillons. This is a genuine and exceedingly good specimen of this rare piece.

231. PETTINGILL PERCUSSION HAMMERLESS ARMY REVOLVER. Calibre .44. In good working order. Parts of the barrel and the frame are very slightly covered with small pits which could easily be removed. These are getting very scarce.
232. ALLEN PERCUSSION PEPPERBOX. 5-shot, 3-inch fluted cylinder. Engraved frame, beautiful ivory grips. Very fine condition.
233. COLT SIDE HAMMER PERCUSSION REVOLVER. Calibre .28. Octagon barrel. Round cylinder. Has been nicely refinished.
234. POST HAMMERLESS PERCUSSION DOUBLE ACTION, RING TRIGGER PEPPERBOX. Marked "J. Post Self-Acting Set Patent of 1849." Engraved frame. Rosewood grips. One of the rarest pepperboxes, in very good condition.
235. RUPERTUS PERCUSSION PISTOL. Length 6 inches. The model with the nipple on the axis of the barrel. Rosewood grips, one of which is split. Not many of these were made, this being No. 41.
236. COOPER DOUBLE ACTION PERCUSSION BELT REVOLVER. Calibre .31. Rosewood grips. This is quite a scarce revolver, and is in good condition.
237. ROGERS & SPENCER PERCUSSION ARMY REVOLVER. Calibre .44. Factory new.
238. FLOBERT PISTOL. 10-inch barrel, calibre .22. Fitted with a breech block and ejector. Nickel plated. Very good condition.
239. CALTHROP. Very rare European specimen. One point slightly damaged and another one broken off. These were used in the early days to stop the approach of cavalry.
240. FOUR HAND CHISELLED BRASS MONEY BOXES. Engraved. Used by Persians in the early days for carrying coins. Very interesting.
241. LOT: Consisting of 2 Keys, Basket Hilt, Spur, Hammer, and 2 pieces of Spurs. These were disinterred and are ancient relics.
242. SWISS HUNTING PRODD. Length 25 inches. Steel bow and original bow-string. The entire piece is original and is of the XVII. Century period.

243. CROMWELLIAN LOBSTER TYPE HELMET. Worn by the "Roundheads," commonly called the "Old Ironsides." Period 1640. Complete and in very good original condition.
244. CROMWELLIAN HELMET. Another--Similar.
245. GERMAN HUNTING SWORD. Length 29 inches, with deep blood grooves. Period 1800. An interesting feature is that there is a hole through the blade ten inches from the point for the insertion of a cross piece for use when hunting to keep the animal from getting too near. The blade has some etched ornamentation. The grip is of engraved bronze and buckhorn. Rare piece, in very good condition.
(See plate 2.)
246. GERMAN CAVALRY SABRE. Waterloo period. Complete with scabbard. Very good condition. This and the two following lots are sabres of different types.
247. GERMAN CAVALRY SABRE, without scabbard. Waterloo period. Very good condition.
248. GERMAN CAVALRY SABRE. Waterloo period. Very fine quality damascus steel blade with some etched ornamentation near the base. Scabbard missing.
249. HUNGARIAN CAVALRY SABRE. Very broad blade showing a full length etched engraving of the Virgin. Period 1700. The scabbard is not in particularly good condition but can be cleaned up.
250. VERY FINE LOUIS XV. COURT SWORD. Very fine quality blade with some etched ornamentation on each side extending about 8 inches from the base. Very fine cut steel guard, and round cut steel pommel. Copper wire wound grip. Exceptionally choice piece, in very good condition. Scabbard missing.
(See plate 4.)
251. FINE LOUIS XV. COURT SWORD. High quality quadrangular blade with some etched ornamentation. Very fine cut decoration showing workmanship of the highest quality. Rare piece.
(See plate 4.)

252. SMALL HUNTING SWORD. Length 23 inches. Period 1650. Fine keen-edged blade with some etched ornamentation each side. Gilt bronze decoration. The turned down quillon represents a bird's head, and the grip is of green ivory. Leather scabbard, engraved brass mounts. Exceptionally nice piece. The grip is very slightly chipped.
(See plate 1.)
253. LOUIS XV. COURT SWORD. 37-inch blade. Engraved iron guard. Wooden grip. The pommel is missing, but, being a rare piece, it is worth restoring.
254. SCHIVONA. 29-inch straight double-edged blade. Hand forged basket hilt completely protecting hand. Scabbard missing, otherwise in good condition.
255. SOUTH GERMAN HUNTING SWORD. 31-inch straight double-edged blade. Period 1720. The end of one quillon is broken, and the hand guard is missing.
256. RARE SPANISH LEFT-HANDED DAGGER. Length 18 inches. Embossed shell-shaped guard showing lion's head. Probably a XVI. century piece, showing remarkable workmanship and design. Scabbard missing, otherwise in perfect condition.
257. HUNGARIAN CAVALRY SABRE. Waterloo period. Complete with scabbard. A very unusual feature about the guard is that it is made in two sections and when being carried on horseback can be closed up, and when used in service the guards can be separated, making a guard for the hand.
(See plate 2.)
258. SCHIVONA. 34-inch double-edged blade, double blood groove at the base. Heavy wrought iron basket hilt completely protecting the hand. This is a sword built for very heavy fighting. Scabbard missing, otherwise in very good condition and a rarity.
(See plate 3.)
259. GERMAN XV. CENTURY HALBERD or WAR BILL HOOK. Length 19 inches. The blade is ornamented on one side with a crude engraving. Slight superficial rust as it was dug up in excavating. Very rare.
(See plate 1.)

260. FINE GERMAN HUNTING SWORD. 22-inch blade. Period 1720. Very handsome bronze mountings representing a hunting scene. The quillon represents an animal's hoof and each side of the hand guard and the other parts are ornamented with hunting scenes. Wooden grip a little worm-eaten. A very superior piece showing the highest class of workmanship. Scabbard missing.

(See plate 1.)

261. LOUIS XVI. COURT SWORD. 30-inch double edged blade handsomely etched on each side for eight inches at the base. Gilt escutcheons showing crown and bishop. Probably belonged to the palace guard of some cardinal. An extremely fine and interesting piece, in original condition, except that the scabbard is missing.

(See plate 4.)

262. GERMAN MERCENARY SWORD. 34-inch straight blade with deep blood grooves each side. Basket hilt. Period 1650. Scabbard missing, otherwise in good original condition.

263. HUNGARIAN CAVALRY SABRE. 32-inch blade showing a crescent and stars. Period 1700. Scabbard missing, otherwise in good condition.

(See plate 4.)

264. LOUIS XV. COURT SWORD. 33-inch triangular blade handsomely etched. Very fine steel pierced guard. Iron grip and pommel. Part of the guard has been broken in transit, but it is all there and can be restored. Fine piece.

(See plate 4.)

265. RARE XVI. CENTURY DAGGER. Length 14 inches. Wide blade with blood groove each side. Quillons pointing down. Peculiar shell-shaped guard. Scabbard missing, otherwise in original condition, and a piece of extreme rarity.

(See plate 5.)

266. HUNGARIAN CAVALRYMAN'S SABRE. Sharply curved blade resembling Turkish scimitar. Beautiful gilt bronze grip bearing royal coat of arms of Hungary. Scabbard missing, otherwise in fine original condition.

(See plate 2.)

(See plate 4.)
268. FRENCH COURT SWORD. 29-inch blade. Scabbard missing, otherwise in good original condition.
(See plate 4.)
269. RARE VENETIAN YARD STICK, with concealed sword blade. Period 1700. The blade is etched at the base and shows a figure of a woman each side. A piece of the greatest rarity, and in very good condition.
270. SPANISH XVI. CENTURY BRONZE STIRRUP. Slightly imperfect.
271. ANCIENT SPUR for use with a jack boot. Period 1650. Part of the leather strap is missing, otherwise in good condition.
272. BIG SPANISH METAL STIRRUP. Period 1750. Used by bull-fighters. Has original strap and leather. Length 11 inches. Good condition.
273. SPANISH BULL-FIGHTER'S STIRRUP. Period 1750. Length 9 inches. Original strap but the foot leather is missing. Good condition.
274. GERMAN XV. CENTURY HALBERG or WAR BILL HOOK. Slight superficial rust as it was dug up in excavating. Very rare.
(See plate 1.)
275. PAIR SPANISH BRONZE STIRRUPS. Period 1600. Fine condition. Very rare.
276. PAIR XVI. CENTURY SPANISH BRONZE STIRRUPS AND SPURS. The spurs are beautifully engraved, and the rowels are fashioned to represent five-pointed stars. One point broken, otherwise perfect.
277. PAIR XVI. CENTURY BRONZE SPANISH STIRRUPS.

278. PAIR XVI. IRON SPANISH STIRRUPS.
279. ANCIENT SPANISH IRON SPUR. Two thin discs form the rowel. Rare.
280. 2 IRON SPANISH STIRRUPS. XVI. Century. Not quite mates.
281. RARE U. S. COPPER POWDER FLASK, made by R. Gingee, New York, 1833. Eagle and trumpet each side. One side dented.
282. FINE POWDER BOX. 7 inches high, 4 inches in diameter. Made from cocoanut and finely carved, showing two women's heads, one man's head and large urn with flowers. These decorations are in panels surmounted by foliated carving.
283. LOT. Oriental beaded tobacco bag and three (3) oriental beaded tobacco boxes, two of horn, one of wood with silver carrying chains. Fine.
284. COLT PERCUSSION REVOLVING MUSKET. Calibre .56. 5-shot fluted cylinder. Repaired at the grip (hardly shows), otherwise fine. No bayonet.
285. LOT. Oriental carved wooden paddle-shaped piece. Length 32 inches. Pumpkin pipe (Chinese). Wooden cup, and Boxer cape.
286. LOT. Three (3) German swords and two (2) stirrups. Period 1600. Very rusty. Were dug up. (5)
287. LOT. Four (4) Blades. 2 straight court sword, and 2 cavalry. Period about 1700. (4)
288. STEVENS TARGET PISTOL. Off Hand Model. 8-inch barrel. Calibre .22, and 6-inch barrel, calibre .25, also like new.
289. LOT. Oriental pipe (incomplete), flat powder horn, and Turkish cartridge belt holding 100 cartridges, calibre .30.
290. FINE BELGIAN PERCUSSION POCKET PISTOL. Length 6 inches. Damascus barrel, concealed trigger, engraved frame, silver name plate. Would be in fine condition if cleaned.

291. GERMAN CAVALRY SABRE. Sharkskin grip. Complete with scabbard. Period 1750.
292. POLYNESIAN CEREMONY STICK. Length 31 inches. Of carved wood.
293. WAR CLUB. Length 22 inches. Heavy brass head. Finely carved man's head on other end. Rare piece.
(See plate 8.)
294. NATIONAL DERINGER. Calibre .41. Silver-plated barrel and frame, with some engraving. Checked rosewood grips. Very good condition.
295. ALGERIAN CHIEF'S FLINT-LOCK HOLSTER PISTOL. Length 13 inches. The barrel is fluted for $2\frac{1}{2}$ inches at the breech. Slightly belled muzzle. The stock is of a very pretty walnut, carved in relief to represent a ramrod. This is set with silver wire, and the forestock and grip are checked in panel each side. Lock and hammer are nicely engraved. There are two side plates of engraved brass. Brass capped butt in shell design. Around the tang and the comb the piece is covered with silver wire inlay. Engraved brass trigger guard. This is really a high quality pistol and rarely found so good and in this small size.
296. JAVANESE KNIFE. Length $16\frac{1}{2}$ inches. Carved horn grip (chipped on finial). Native wood scabbard, rattan bound, with fine relief carved floral ornament.
297. JAPANESE TWO-HANDED LONG SWORD: SIGNED. L. 42. Sharkskin and leather hilt, with bronze inlaid cap, fine steel blade with double blood-drip channels; iron guard with relief of wild duck in the reeds. Crushed leather scabbard. UNUSUALLY FINE SIGNED PIECE.
298. UNUSUALLY FINE SIGNED SILVER MOUNTED JAPANESE SHORT SWORD. L. 18 ins. Bevelled edge blade of fine steel with blood-drip channel, polished lacquer scabbard, with silver hilt, carved and inlaid with fisherman, plum-tree, and birds feeding in the rice. Lacks the short knife and the scabbard is a little chipped, otherwise A VERY FINE SIGNED EXAMPLE.
299. CARVED IVORY SWORD. L. 32. Bevelled blade of damascened steel; the hilt and scabbard of ivory carved with warriors in relief and slightly colored in black, red, etc. One ivory loop-holder for cord missing.

300. 15TH CENTURY ROMAN MACE HEAD. Carved in bold pointed bosses. Excavated in Italy.
301. JAPANESE LONG SWORD. L. 36. Bevelled blade, fine gold bronze hilt incised and inlaid with a sharkskin panel on which is mounted a bronze ornament, bronze tip similar, and the bronze cap with relief floral medallion; the bands are ornamented with sentokû bronze, the bronze guard is pierced as a war chariot wheel; and the scabbard is of iridescent mosaic lacquer (loop-holder missing).
302. JAPANESE DAGGER WITH KIRI CREST. L. 14 ins. Fine blade slightly shaped to a curve, bronze scabbard, with 8 medallions in gold bronze of the Kiri Crest (a sign of Japanese Nobility).
303. JAPANESE SHORT SWORD OF FINE STEEL. L. 19 ins. Wrapped sharkskin hilt, inlaid bronze dragon tip and menuki; Copper hilt for short knife of moon and pine in relief.
304. JAPANESE SHORT SWORD. L. 20 ins. Sharkskin hilt, wrapped, short knife with bronze handle; lacquer scabbard, rubbed.
305. FOUR WOODEN SPEAR HEADS, with carved flat shafts of dark wood. In a primitive pattern, rubbed in with white, probably Abyssinian. L. 22 ins. and shorter.
306. FIVE WOODEN SPEAR HEADS. Similar, one having hollowed rounded shaft for mounting on a pole. (5)
307. THREE HEAVY BRONZE 16TH CENTURY NET WEIGHTS. Globular form with set ring tops, one large and two smaller. (3) Would make fine door stops.
308. PAIR ROUND BRASS BREAST PLATE ORNAMENTS. Diam. 5 ins. Relief design in bands and centre medallion of formal floral pattern. A ring on the edge of one and a hook on the other give the necessary play for use; there have apparently been iron flat straps across inside with brass nails, but these are missing.
309. THREE PAIR OF BRONZE BREAST PLATE ORNAMENTS. Kidney shape, carved in relief with Pheasant resting, and floral border with rope guard. (6 pcs.)

310. TWO PAIR OF BRONZE BREAST PLATE ORNAMENTS. Kidney shape, carved with leaf form edge. (4 pcs.)
(See plate 1.)
311. JAPANESE LONG SWORD. L. 32. A good sword but the scabbard of lacquer with red Cherry crests has been abused; the hilt cap is missing, but the piece is worth consideration on account of the beauty of the carving of the hand of ivory in horses (very tiny yet perfect) ; gourds, lattice, etc.; and the unusually fine menuki which are of shibuichi and shakudo.
312. GERMAN CAVALRY SABRE. Sharkskin grip. Complete with scabbard. Period 1750.
